

Beginning User	Adaptive User	Advanced User
This user uses the SMART Board in a very basic way	This user uses the SMART Board for teaching and manipulating	This user uses the SMART Board for teaching, manipulating, and student interaction in a very visually effective way
<input type="checkbox"/> Displays overhead projector on SMART Board	<input type="checkbox"/> Uses stylus markers for notes and examples in Notebook	<input type="checkbox"/> Numerous Notebook features are used with ease, including advanced features (such as recording, spotlighting, highlighting, etc.)
<input type="checkbox"/> Uses dry-erase markers for annotations	<input type="checkbox"/> Notebook Galleries are used on a regular basis	<input type="checkbox"/> Students interact with manipulatives, maps or other portions of interactive lessons
<input type="checkbox"/> Teacher is primary user of the SMART Board	<input type="checkbox"/> Notebook is used on an hourly basis	<input type="checkbox"/> Students annotate in Notebook, on the Internet
<input type="checkbox"/> Struggles with features, unsure of basic tools in Notebook	<input type="checkbox"/> Most Notebook features used	<input type="checkbox"/> Interactive lessons are developed and used on a regular basis
<input type="checkbox"/> Displays seatwork/bellwork directions then turns off for rest of morning/hour	<input type="checkbox"/> Visual presentation limited to notes, study guides, worksheets or other scanned materials	<input type="checkbox"/> Notebook, Internet, emulators and other projected programs used on an hourly basis
<input type="checkbox"/> Projector primarily used for showing videos, United Streaming or Chalkwaves		<input type="checkbox"/> SMART Board and projector are used in effective visual presentations (images, maps, Internet, video integration, SMART Ideas, interactive PowerPoints, saved annotations in Microsoft products)
		<input type="checkbox"/> Has experimented with improving skills through training sessions, downloading templates and lessons
		<input type="checkbox"/> Knows basic troubleshooting