

Transparent tools – here's what to do

Make the shape you want transparent

Select the shape and click the Properties tab. Fill the shape with color. Set the Object Transparency of the shape as well.

You're ready to use the transparent shape! Next step – you might want to infinitely clone it.

Setting the transparency can also be done with gallery images. Select the image, go to properties and adjust the transparency.

